

LEE CROWLEY

Lee Crowley aka B-Boy "Reckless Lee" is a member of SOUL MAVERICKS Crew.

Whilst growing up, Welshman Lee competed as a trampolinist at national and international events representing Wales. He started b-boying at the age of 13. Throughout his many years of training in b-boying and trampolining, Lee has developed an explosive style which showcases his fast power moves, high flips and daring tricks.

Recently, Lee made it to the top 14 dancers on BBC1's second series of "So You Think You Can Dance UK", beating hundreds of dancers from all over the country in the process. The show has given the Lee the opportunity to perform on live television in many styles such as Broadway, Contemporary, Jazz and Hip-Hop and demonstrate his versatility as a dancer.

Lee has travelled extensively competing with Soul Mavericks Crew both abroad and in the UK. Highlights with the crew include winning the National Championships to represent the UK at the "UK B-boy Championships World Finals" and winning the 2009 "Battle of the Year UK". Lee has danced in many stage shows such as Boy Blue's Olivier Award-winning "Pied Piper" and with top music artists including Lemar and Katy Perry. He has also performed at numerous promotional events and is a judge for the UDO Street Dance Championships, a competition he won many years ago. Multi-skilled Lee can also play the piano. His talents are never ending and at only 20 years old, he is definitely one to watch!
