

LUKE ANTYSZ

Luke graduated from London Contemporary Dance School in 2009. During his training he performed in works by Merce Cunningham, Siobhan Davies and Richard Alston, touring London and Europe with LC3 Company. Luke is a dancer, choreographer and teacher with 3rd Stage Dance Company, teaching professional and community classes in Bristol and Bath.

For the company he also leads outreach projects within healthcare and educational settings, and works as a freelance performer for various choreographers. Within the youth dance sector Luke teaches and choreographs for RISE Youth Dance, Newbury Contemporary Youth Dance Company and RUSH – an all-male company based in Berkshire. He is also a lecturer in contemporary technique for Bath Spa University. Luke is passionate about delivering high quality dance training in a nurturing and supportive environment.
