

TROY BANTON

Troy is a professional dancer that specializes in House dance and floor movement. He has graduated from the London Russian Ballet School and still continues to practice his ballet art. He has begun to fuse his ballet/contemporary & Floor work technique with his house dancing, giving him a unique style in the house dance scene and dance culture today.

He is also proficient in locking, breaking and hip hop to classical style dances; jazz, contemporary, physical theatre & acting. He has taught House dance workshops in different parts of the UK & around the world and regular classes at pineapple dance studio & Studio 68.