

VICKI BAILEY

Vicki completed her dance training at Millennium Dance 2000. She is now an independent dance artist and teaches regularly for Swindon Dance's community classes.

Vicki is a dancer and founding member of Sole Rebel Tap and Swerve Dance Theatre Company, Swerve have just finished a double bill South West tour 'Subtext'. She has danced in films "To the lighthouse", "And you are" and "A Glutton for love" with Swerve and Film Artist Jaime Bullock. Along with films and theatre performance Vicki also works with Curious Company and choreographer Marie-Louise Flexen. Passed work included performing with international band 'Sparks' at Shepards Bush Empire, a variety of festivals and street theatre.

Vicky has a diploma in dance teaching and learning, she has been working for Swindon Dance - Youth Dance Academy (YDA) a centre for advanced training for the past 7 years and is Project Coordinator for the YDA Urban Programme.